

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The First UERA Summer School

'Education Research: Communication, Grant-writing, Methodology and Publications'

The project is funded by the United States Department of State grant for the United States programmes alumni. The project is implemented due to the support of the the Public Affairs Section of the United States Embassy in Kyiv. The views of the organisers of the Summer School do not necessarily reflect the official position of the government of the United States.

Organiser	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Ukrainian Educational Research Association (UERA)
What	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Research summer school for training research trainers
Where	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Ivan Franko Lviv National University, Ukraine
When	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•17-20 August 2016
Who	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•30 prospective trainers (Summer School participants: early and mid-career researchers with expertise in the field of education)•15 trainers (committee members of UERA)
Selection	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Competitive
Prerequisites	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•English (B1)•quality of publications in the area of education
What's covered by UERA	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•Summer School activities•coffee breaks•accommodation (with breakfast) - pre-booked and paid by UERA for you•your return ticket to Lviv from where you live (bus/train) will be reimbursed
Application deadline	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 15 June 2016

To get more details and apply, follow

<http://uera.org.ua/en/SummerSchool>